THEREFORE LET US PURSUE THE THINGS WHICH MAKE FOR PEACE AND THE THINGS BY WHICH
ONE MAY EDIFY ANOTHER.
